Serial No.

Special temporary advances from the Treasury up to a limit of Rs 400 when in the pressure of process service the ordinary permanent advance with the Central Nazir is expended, the amounts so drawn being considered as "Special Temporary advances for Process Service". The District Judges were requested to see that these temporary advances or portions of them were repaid to the Treasury whenever the cash balance of the Central Nazir admitted of this being done.

3 The permanent advance of the the Deputy Nazir of the Seringapatam Munsiff's Court was as a temporary measure raised from Rs 250 to 300 subject to the security of the Deputy Nazir being raised from Rs 250 to 300.

4 A report was required to be submitted on the result of the experiment at the end of the year and agreeably to this the present reference is made. The Chief Court report that the system has worked very well and request that the arrangement may be permanently sanctioned.

Chief Court of Mysore,
Bangalore dated 6th:March 1907.

From,

V. A. Rajaratna Mudaliar Esq.,
Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To,

K. S. Chandrasekhara Aiyar Esq.,
Secretary to Government,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

Adverting to the Proceedings of Government No.J.1785-8/Cts.122-4 dated 28th December 1905, authorizing, as an experimental measure, the District Judges of Mysore and Bangalore to obtain on cheques special temporary advances from the Treasury up to 400 Rs. whenever the ordinary permanent advance with the Central Nazirs was exhausted, I am directed to state that the above arrangement has, it is reported, worked satisfactorily and the Nazir, being now always in possession of funds required, has been able to serve more processes. I am to recommend that the above arrangement may be permanently sanctioned.

The increase of the permanent advance of the Deputy Nazir of the Seringapatam Munsiff's Court from 250 to 300 Rs. tentatively sanctioned in the above has also considerably improved the service of processes and I am to request that the said increase may be made permanent. The Deputy Nazir has furnished cash security of Rs.300/-.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

V Rajaratnam

REGISTRAR.
